

Request for Review of Children's Aid Society Child and Family Services Review Board Application

Child and Family Services Act – Section 68

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Please read the following information before completing this application form.

You may make a complaint about a children's aid society to the Child and Family Services Review Board

- once you have completed the children's aid society's internal complaint review procedure; or
- at any time during the children's aid society's internal complaint review procedure; or
- directly without going through the children's aid society's internal complaint review procedure

if you believe:

- 1) that the children's aid society has refused to proceed with your complaint;
- 2) that the children's aid society has failed to respond to your complaint within the timeframes required by regulation;
- 3) that the children's aid society has failed to comply with the complaint review procedure or with any other procedural requirement under the Child and Family Services Act relating to the review of complaints;
- 4) that the children's aid society has failed to comply with clause 2(2)(a) of the Child and Family Services Act which states, "Service providers shall ensure that children and their parents have an opportunity where appropriate to be heard and represented when decisions affecting their interests are made and to be heard when they have concerns about the services they are receiving;"
- 5) that the children's aid society has failed to provide you with reasons for a decision and this affects your interests;
- 6) that the children's aid society has inaccurately recorded something on your file or record and this has not been resolved through the children's aid society's internal complaint review procedure*;

*Note: This complaint can only be made to the Child and Family Services Review Board after it has been reviewed through the children's aid society's internal complaint review procedure.

The Child and Family Services Review Board cannot review a complaint if the complaint is about:

- 1) an issue that has been decided by the court or is before the court; or
- 2) an issue that falls under another decision-making process under the Child and Family Services Act or the Labour Relations Act.
